

Call for Applications International Summer School A tutto tondo 2026 TALENT WITHOUT BORDERS: DESIGNING TALENT SPACES

1. INTRODUCTION

From 8 to 11 July 2026, on the occasion of the third edition of the A tutto tondo – Education Festival, Rondò dei Talenti will host a programme of summer schools for education professionals in Cuneo (Italy).

Within this framework, the present Call for Applications is specifically addressed to the international community through the organisation of an international summer school within the Gear Up! Framework: Talent without Borders – Designing Talent Spaces.

The summer school is designed for international educators, school leaders, trainers, researchers, and education professionals interested in innovative approaches to learning environments, talent development, and inclusive educational ecosystems.

2. OBJECTIVES

The summer school aims to:

- promote high-quality international professional development opportunities in the field of education;
- foster dialogue, exchange, and collaboration among education professionals from different countries and contexts;
- disseminate innovative educational practices and support more equitable and inclusive education systems.

3. SUBJECT OF THE CALL

This Call for Applications sets out the procedures and criteria for the selection of participants for the international summer school Talent without Borders: Designing Talent Spaces.

4. THE SUMMER SCHOOL

The international summer school will take place from 8 to 11 July 2026 in Cuneo (Italy) at Rondò dei Talenti and nearby venues. The programme includes approximately 23 hours of on-site training. All activities will be conducted in English. Participants who attend at least 75% of the overall programme will be awarded an official certificate of participation.

The summer school will be developed based on the MOOC of the GEAR UP project, which aims to improve young people's wellbeing across the EU by equipping all stakeholders involved in their orientation and guidance. The training will also be recognized as a microcredential, in line with the European framework that values short, high-quality learning experiences designed to develop specific knowledge, skills and competences.

The full programme of the summer school is available on the Rondò dei Talenti website (www.rondodeitalenti.it).

5. PARTECIPATION FEE AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT

The summer school is offered free of charge.

Fondazione CRC will award a participation grant of Euro 600 to the first 20 eligible international candidates admitted. The grant will be awarded upon completion of the summer school and subject to at least 75% attendance.

The grants will be awarded in September 2026.

6. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The cohort will be composed of Italian<sup>1</sup> and international participants.

The summer school is open to teachers, school leaders, educators, trainers, museum educators, researchers, and other education professionals.

International applicants must demonstrate good command of English.
